Dedication

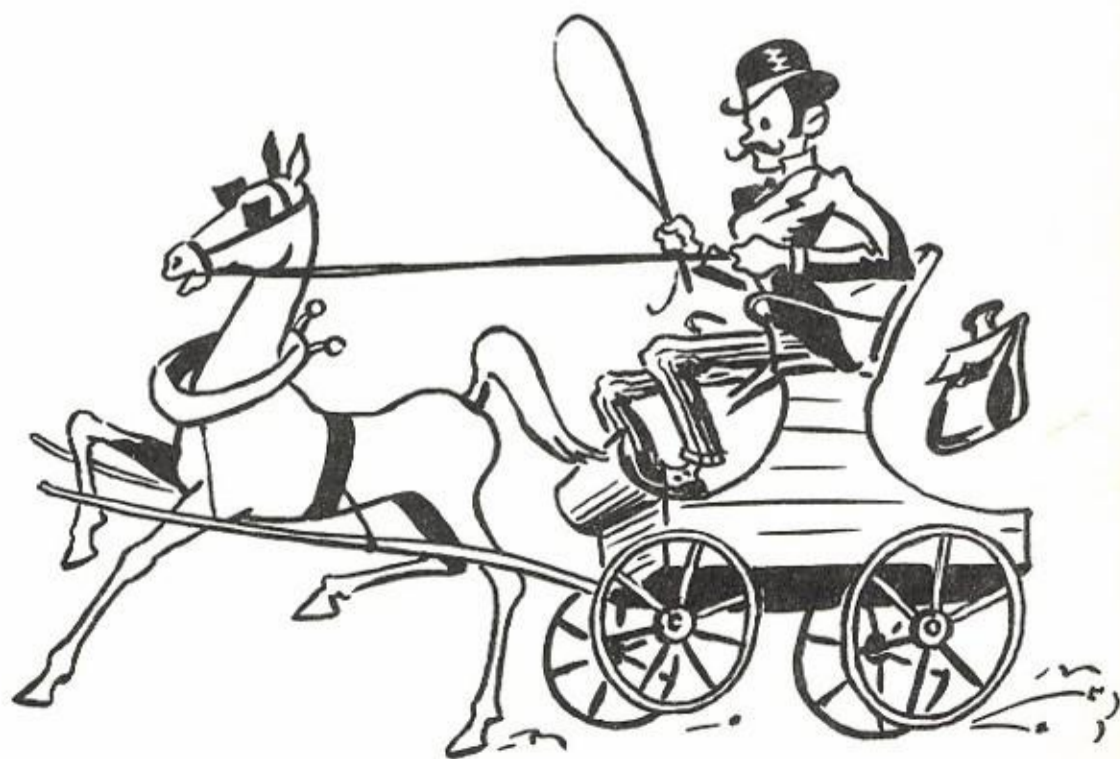

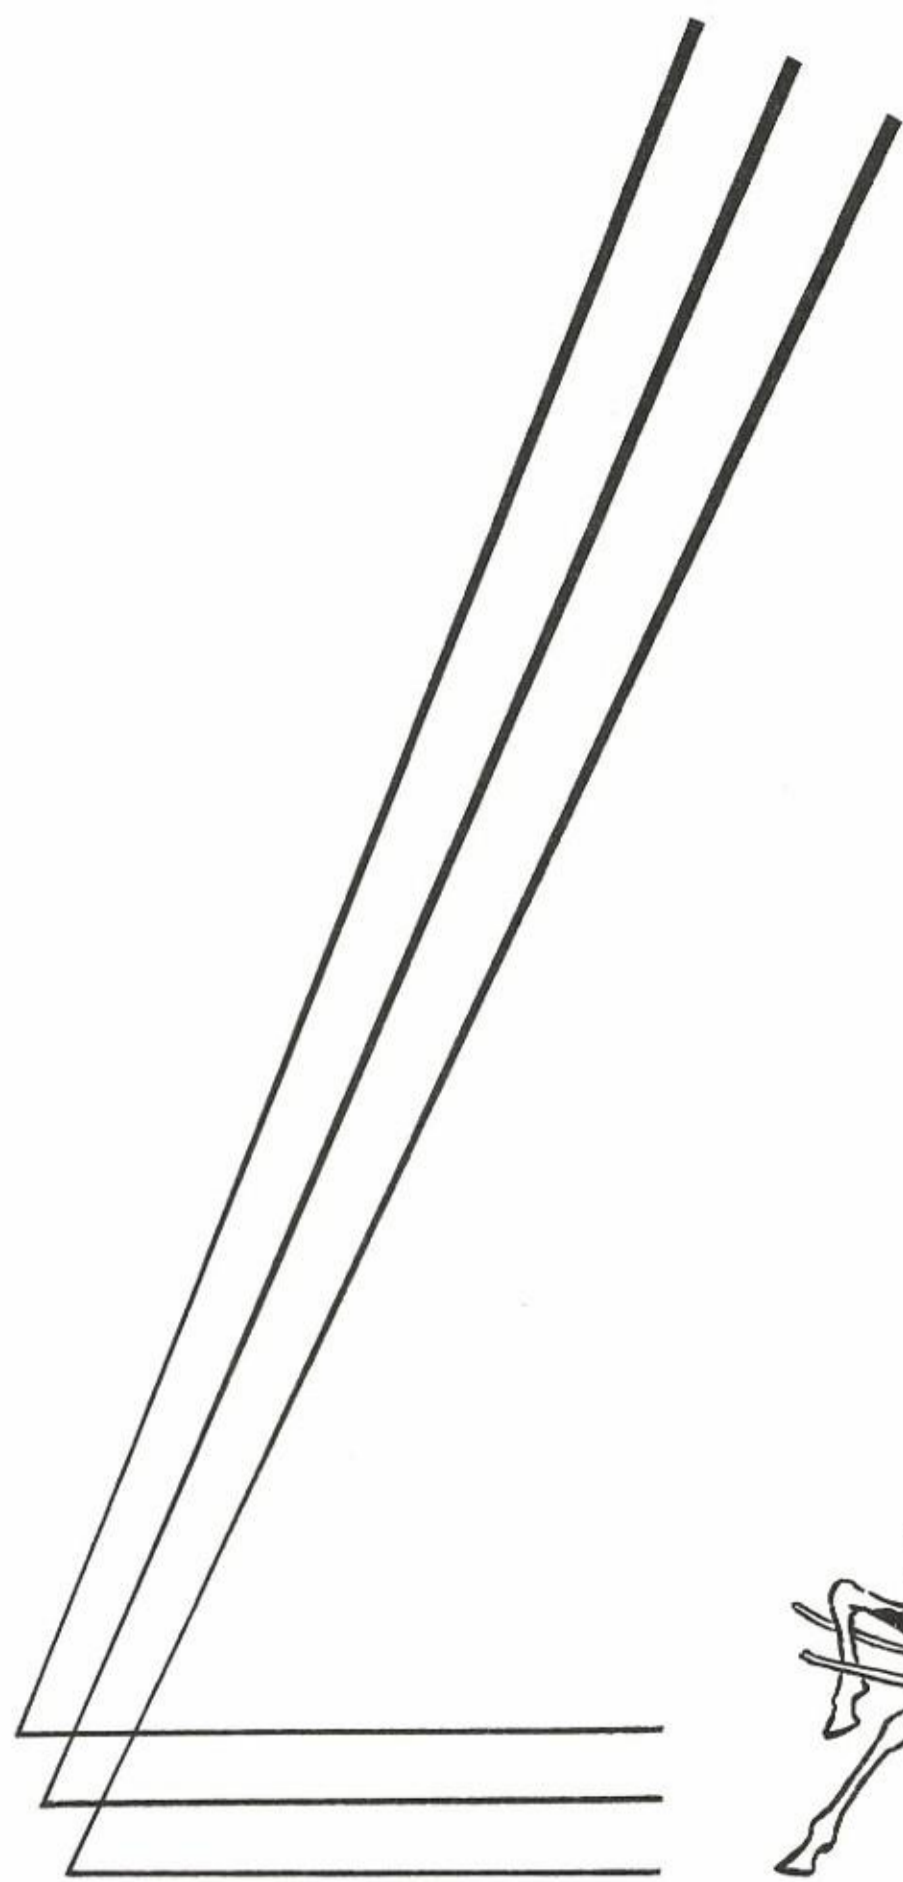

We, the Senior Class, would like to dedicate this edition of the Arickaree to our Mothers and Fathers. It is with deepest respect and appreciation that we do so.

Without your constant guidance and understanding it would have been impossible for us to attain this goal. Your leadership has helped in the formation of memories which happily end our high school career and make us ready to take that important step into the world of tomorrow. Please accept this dedication of our annual as an expression of the love and appreciation which we have for you.

Class of '55

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent

To the Seniors of 1955, I extend my hearty Congratulations for your contribution to the Haigler High School in the past.

As I write this, I think of a group of seniors who were looking forward to their graduation at Haigler High School twenty-two years ago. I am sure that we could hardly wait until The Big Day. At the end we all felt that the year had ended too soon. If you were to talk to any of that group, no doubt they would have many fond memories to share with you.

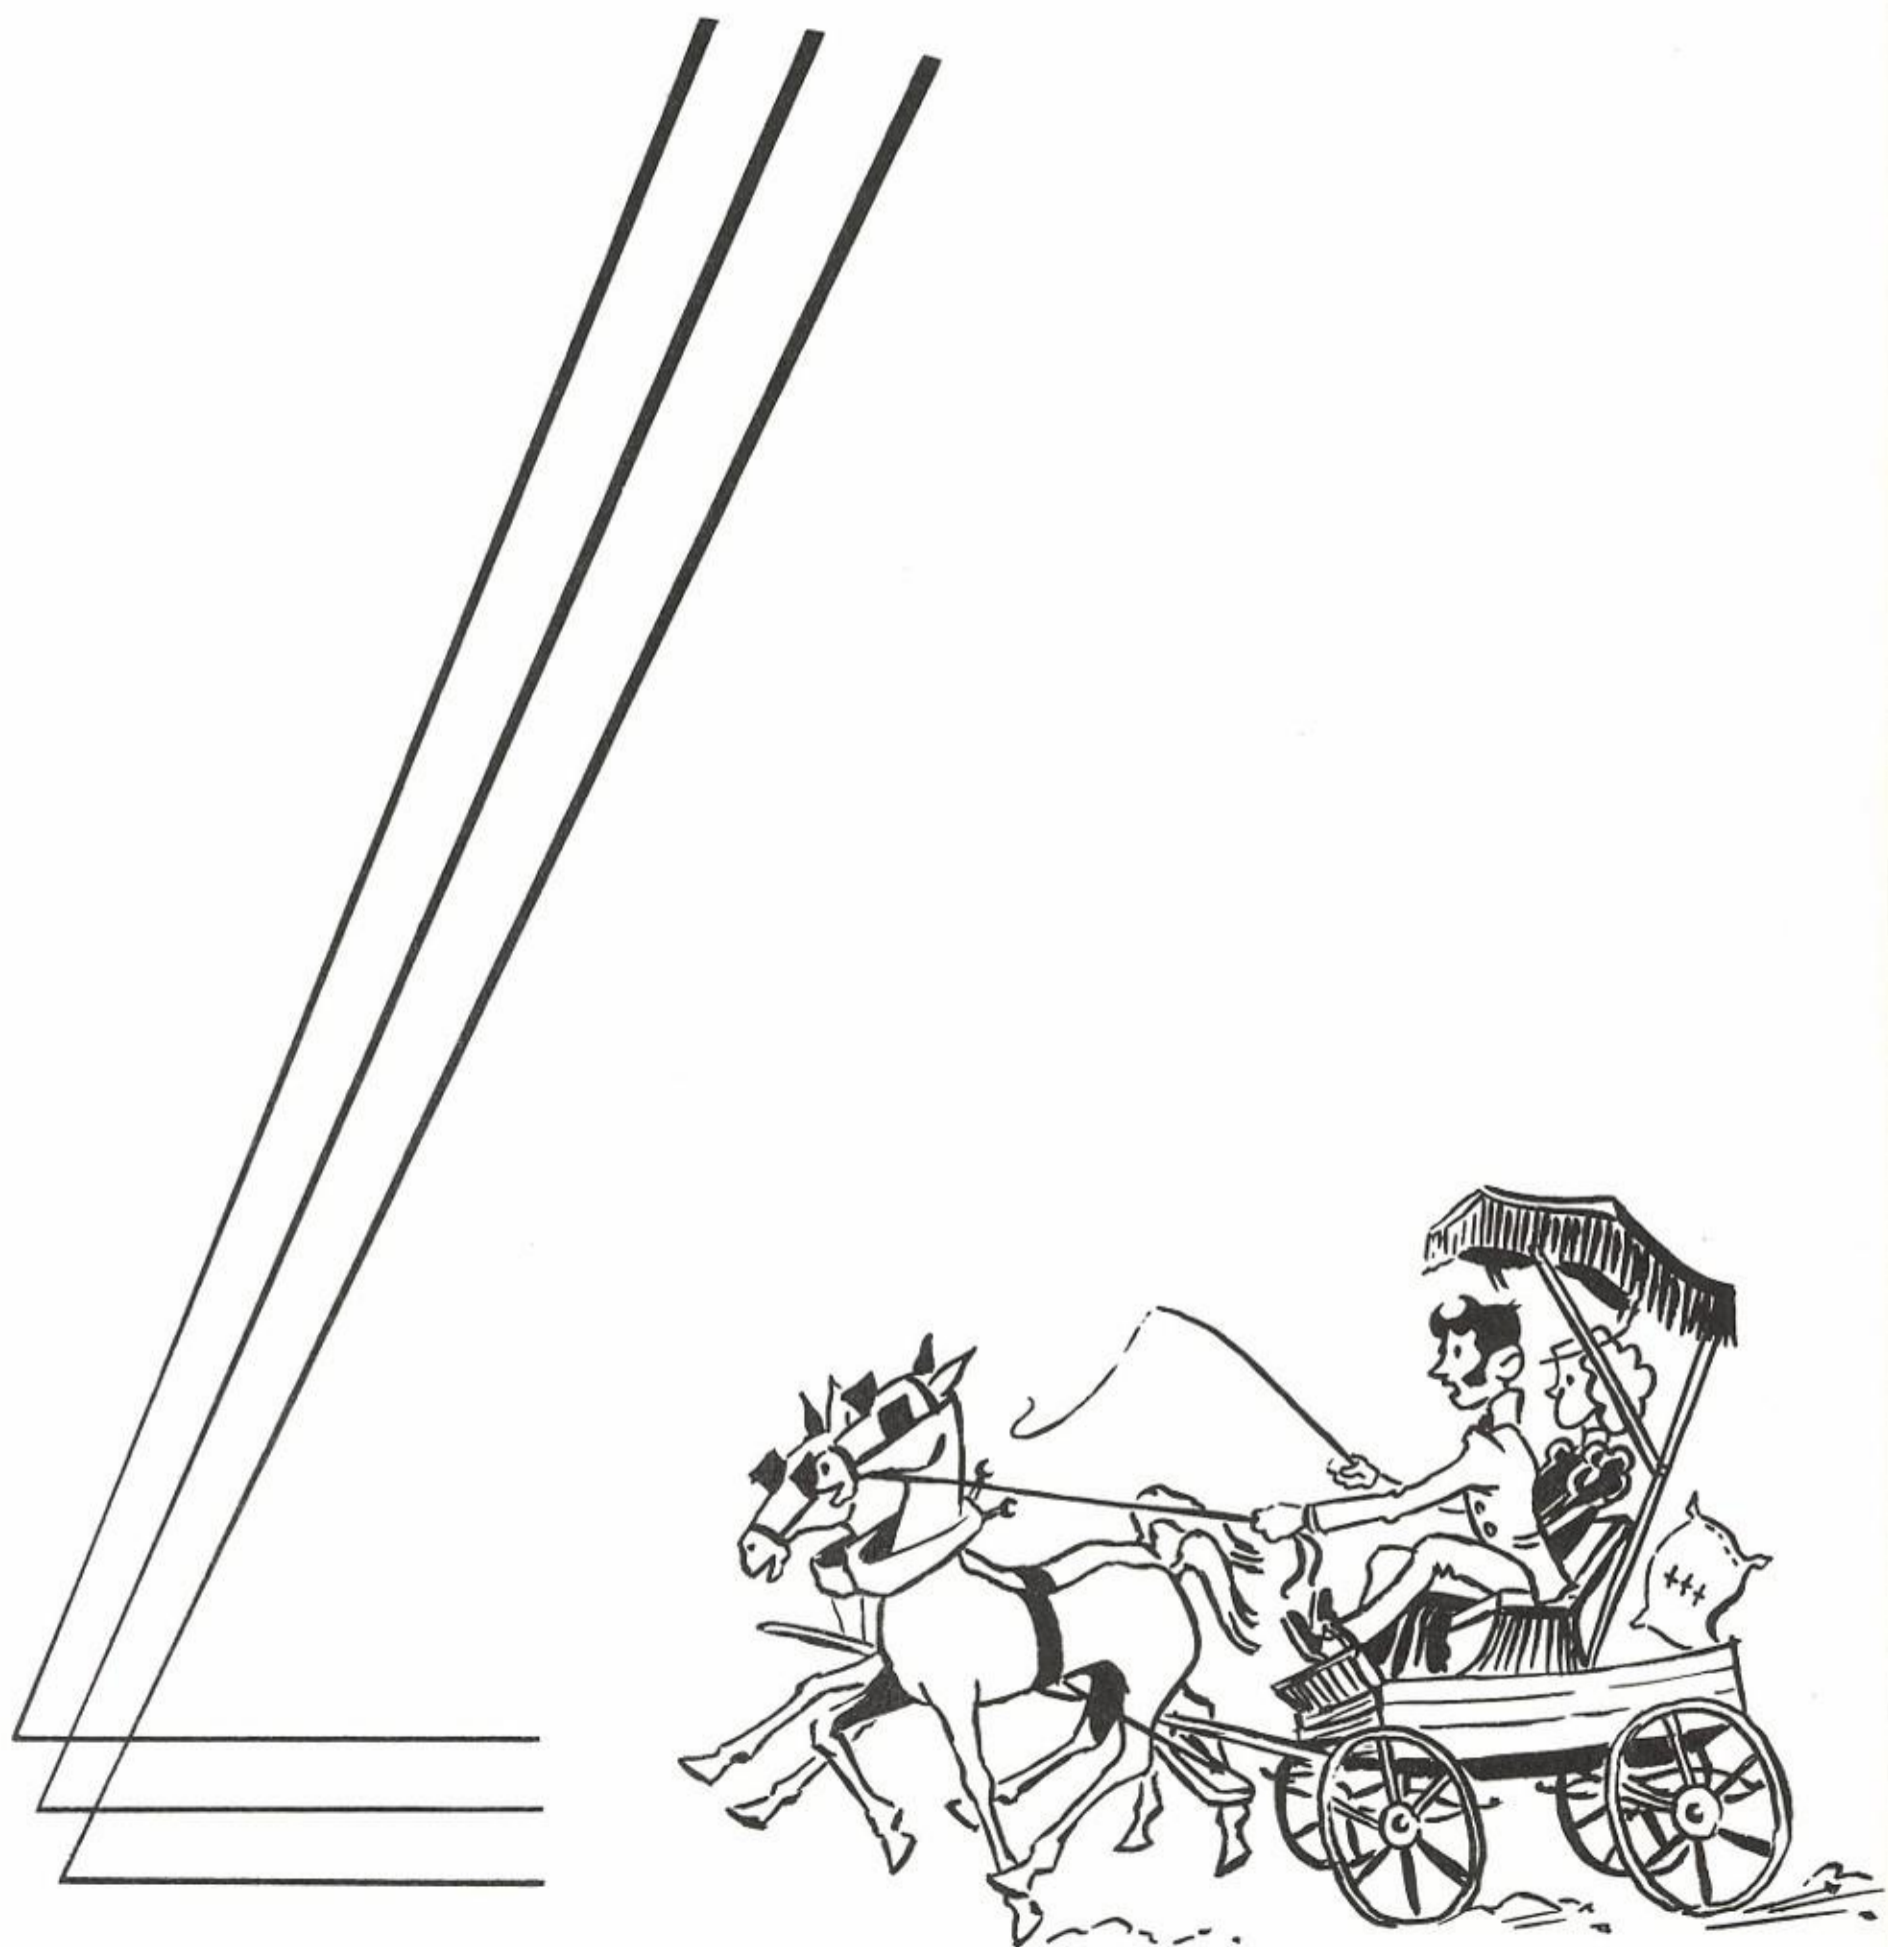

I am looking forward to the balance of this year in the hope that you will continue to contribute much of value to H. H. S. and that your Alma Mater will hold much that you will treasure in the years to come.

As you face the future we hope that, through your efforts and the opportunities made possible by your school, you will be successful in every worthwhile venture you undertake. Perhaps you would do well to adopt as your motto or way of life the Golden Rule.

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Class History

In the year 1951, nineteen green freshmen entered Haigler High School. They were Russell Hoover, Tom Wheaton, Frank Novak, David Sims, Mary Sharp, Lucille Schwartz, Almeda Bier, Helen Novak, Myrtle Sayer, Pearlene Workman, Fauniel Bragg, Kaye Andres, Charlotte Sayer, Gwen Scrivner, Mildred Workman, Shirley Potthoff, Elmer Wilkening, Velma Oster, and Eddy Collins.

Our teachers were: W. P. Kriemelmeyer, Fred Northup, and Betty Jo Potts. Mr. Northup was our sponsor.

When we went back to school next fall, Helen and Frank Novak were not with us.

Our teachers were Mr. and Mrs. Kriemelmeyer and Fred Northup. Mrs. Kriemelmeyer was our sponsor.

In our junior year Velda Montgomery, Mae Erdman, and Bill Sanner joined our class, but we lost Mildred Workman. On November 24, 1953 we gave our play "The Hoodoo". We received our class rings in November also. We gave our banquet the 29th of April with the theme of Hawaii Cruise.

Our teachers that year were Mr. and Mrs. Sanner and Dale Reckard. Mrs. Sanner was our sponsor.

This year, our last, Bill Sanner and Myrtle and Charlotte Sayer weren't with us, leaving sixteen in the class. The highlight of the year was the "senior sneak" which was enjoyed by all.

Our teachers are J. S. Catlett, Ida Johnson, L. L. Everett, and Bernal Carter. Mr. Catlett is our sponsor.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday, May 15, 1955. Commencement exercises were held Tuesday, May 17, 1955.

Class Poem

Now our joys of school are past
We're through this process of learning.
We hope you'll remember this Senior Class;
As we will this school--In our yearning.

Now first in line comes Eddy
A kid you'd like to meet
In any kind of sport you'll find,
He simply can't be beat.

Velma, an active member of our class,
Has led a small town life.
When she gets out of school,
She'll settle down to be a housewife.

Elmer is a bashful guy.
He thinks school is quite a bore;
He'd rather drive his pick-up,
Or stay home and do the chores.

Almeda and her little auto,
Have this famous motto:
"I can live without poetry or walking,
But who in the world can live without talking."

Another member of our class,
Wished a stenographer to be.
But Fauniel, that sparkler on your hand,
Has changed your mind we see.

Kaye, the friendliest of our group,
Always cracking a joke is she.
Her personality will take her far,
No matter where she may be.

Tom ambles by
Deliberate as can be
He's gone through school and done his best
Since the days of a, b, c.

Pearline is a quieter person,
Her names' on the Honor Roll;
Just in case you haven't heard,
To be an artist is her goal.

Now Russell thinks he's woman proof.
But someday he'll find his head in a whirl
And then he'll have to start building a roof
For some good looking girl.

Mae another member of our class,
So friendly and so true.
And if you look at her just right,
She is sure to smile at you.

All at once the silence is broken.
What?--Guess, you know,
It's Shirley, the mischievous cut up.
She is always on the go.

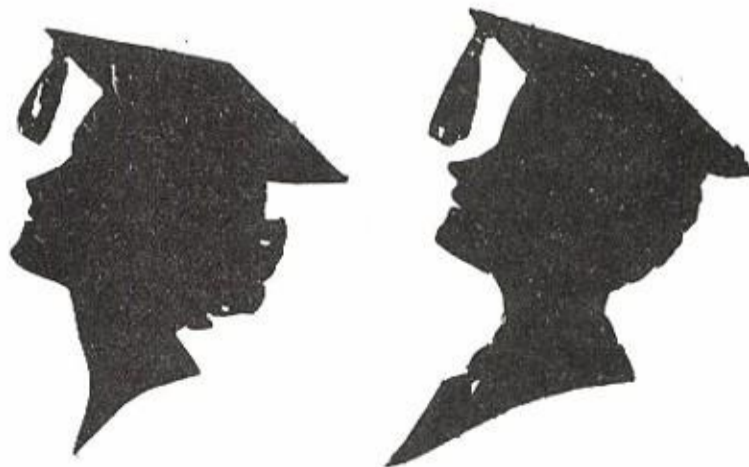

A feeling of sadness and sorrow,
Is never in our classroom.
As long as we have David
To take away the gloom.

Mary is an ambitious gal,
A lady rancher she will someday be.
She'd rather have a palomino for a pal,
Than a fellow says she????????

Gwen is a likeable girl,
So full of pep and fun.
What are her plans for the future?
Your guess is as good as any ones.

Lucille is a quiet lass
On that we all agree.
But who knows if this is true,
When there is none of us to see.

Vellie is the last in line
Listen to her famous rhyme:
"Life is easy smooth and slow,
Do what comes and let the rest go."

Class Will

We, the senior class of 1955, of Haigler, Nebraska, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament in manner as follows:

We, the seniors bequeath the surplus funds in our class treasury after graduation, to pay our just and unjust debts and to repair broken furniture.

I, Gwen, will my ability to go with Freshman boys to next years Senior girls. I leave my camaflage jacket to any one who needs it for sneaking in class late.

I, Fauniel, leave my technique of wrapping boys class rings to Alfreda Stute. To Claudine Wiley I leave my ability of getting along with Butch Van Horn.

I, Velma Lee, will my ability to get married and still finish school to Doretta Trembly. To Doris Sims I leave my red clothes.

I, Pearline, will my great height to Dick Bannister, and my artistic ability to Bob Brunswig so he can better illustrate his writings on desks

I, Elmer, leave my short legs to Doris Sims. To Nancy Mahon I will my graceful movements.

I, Russell, leave my technique of taking out three girls in one night to any one who can get by with it. To Paul Freehling I leave my ditched, leaping Ford.

I, Eddy, leave my flying "Chevie" to Dallas Adams to make his trips out north. To Rex Tracy I leave my innocent (???) look.

I, Mary, leave my easy going temper to Elizabeth Wheaton. To Larry Collins I will my ability to get along with the Coach.

I, Lucille, leave my letter writing ability to Myrna Oster. To Kathryn Stute I leave my talkative manner.

I, Velie, will the hole in my left ear to Rex Tracy. I leave my Holyoke men to any one who is in need of a man.

I, Shirley, will my ability to change boy friends to Patty Wall. To Stanley Carlock I will my red hair.

I, Dave, will my ability to leave girls alone to Butch Van Horn. To Barbara Evans I leave my mild temper.

I, Almeda, leave my quiet ways to Barbara Neville. To Alice Beeson I leave my ability to drive carefully.

I, Tom, leave my many girl friends to Lianold Kinnett and my blonde hair to John Corder.

I, Kaye, will my ability to play the piano to Kenny Vanderford. I will my sense of humor to Mr. Everett.

I, Mae, will my shrill scream of fright in fourth period study hall to any one who wants it. To Betty Walter I will my ability to blush in class.

Signed, sealed and delivered this nineteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty five.

The HAIGLER NEWS

SERVING HAIGLER AND DUNDY COUNTY

May 17, 1965

LOCALS

The Haigler News has given Fauniel Bragg the title of "Heroine of Western Nebraska". For years she experimented with rainmakers and just last week, her efforts have been awarded. Her latest invention has been proven successful. Gone forever are the duststorms with which we are all so familiar. Fauniel now is planning to take a world tour and spend a few of her millions.

Mae Erdman, world renowned movie critic, has just edited a book, the title of which is "A Decade of Oscars". It is her very exclusive views on the acadamey award winning movies of the last ten years. A copy of this book has been purchased for the Haigler High School library, using the money which was collected from overdue books from the years 1951-1955.

Kaye Andres, famed psychiatrist, is touring the world giving lectures on her recent observations. She found that the brain of a duck can be exchanged with the brain of a human. The only difference is in the manner of speech. She says this discovery led to the launching of the new movie series: Donald, the talking Duck.

A blueprint for the new Haigler High School building will appear in next week's News. Dave Sims, architect from Denver, Colo., states that construction will begin in August. The architect attended H. H. S. and thus is aware of the great need for the building.

Almeda Bier has just set up her agency in Chicago. She is now marriage counselor with a thriving business. Many of her former classmates remember her solving their problems while in H. H. S. When asked about her marital status she says "no dice", but knowing Almeda, we wonder!!!

There will undoubtedly be a large crowd from Haigler attending the ranch sale north of town next week. "Everything goes," said Mary Sharp, the young owner and proprietor who has made a name for herself in the cattle industry. She has been offered a contract by the Powers Model Agency in New York and will try her luck in this profession for awhile. Knowing Mary, we know that she will succeed.

Friends of Russell Hoover will be glad to hear that he will appear on TV tonight over Channel 6. He is to be awarded a trophy for being not only the fastest, but the safest hot-rod driver in the history of racing. Surely everyone in the vicinity of Haigler remembers how he terrorized the predestrians in his hot rods during his high-school days.

Elmer Wilkening, the bashful boy of the class of '55, has been granted a great promotion in the "Charles of the Ritz" cosmetic Co. in London. He is now the only lipstick tester in the world who has kissed 9,999 women in one year.

We now hear that Mdse. Pearlina Workman, artist of world fame, is making a tour of the universe. Many of her former classmates and friends will go to Denver June 1st, where she will show her display of paintings entitled (The Lost Paint Brush.)

Thomas Wheaton, former resident of Haigler, is now making his home at Waikiki Beach, Hawaii. He is now employed as a beach-wear photographer. It is rumored that there are 5 women for every man at Waikiki this season. He will undoubtedly be a very busy man.

Gwen Scrivner, established lady lawyer practicing in New York, has moved to a new location. Her office is now in the Empire State Building. She is running a thriving business, with 95% of her clients being men. She is still single and plans a short vacation in Haigler soon.

"Yes, in a very short time, men from Mars will be stalking the earth". This is the prediction made by Velda Montgomery, astronomer of world fame. She has been making experiments on animal and vegetable life on the planets.

The new song hit of the season is the work of that famous composer of hit tunes, Lucille Schwartz. The catchy, snatchy little title, is, "Gilly on the bank of the "Della-wear" pink stood George Washingmachine With His Bones-Apart".

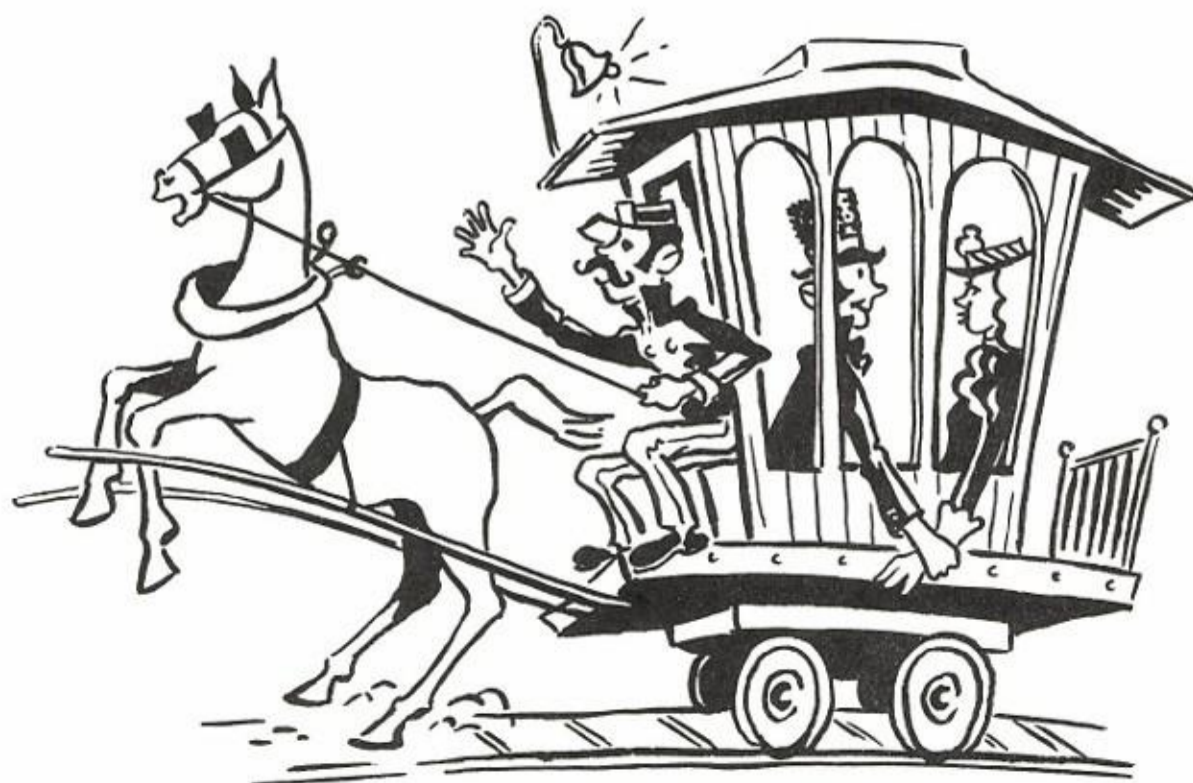

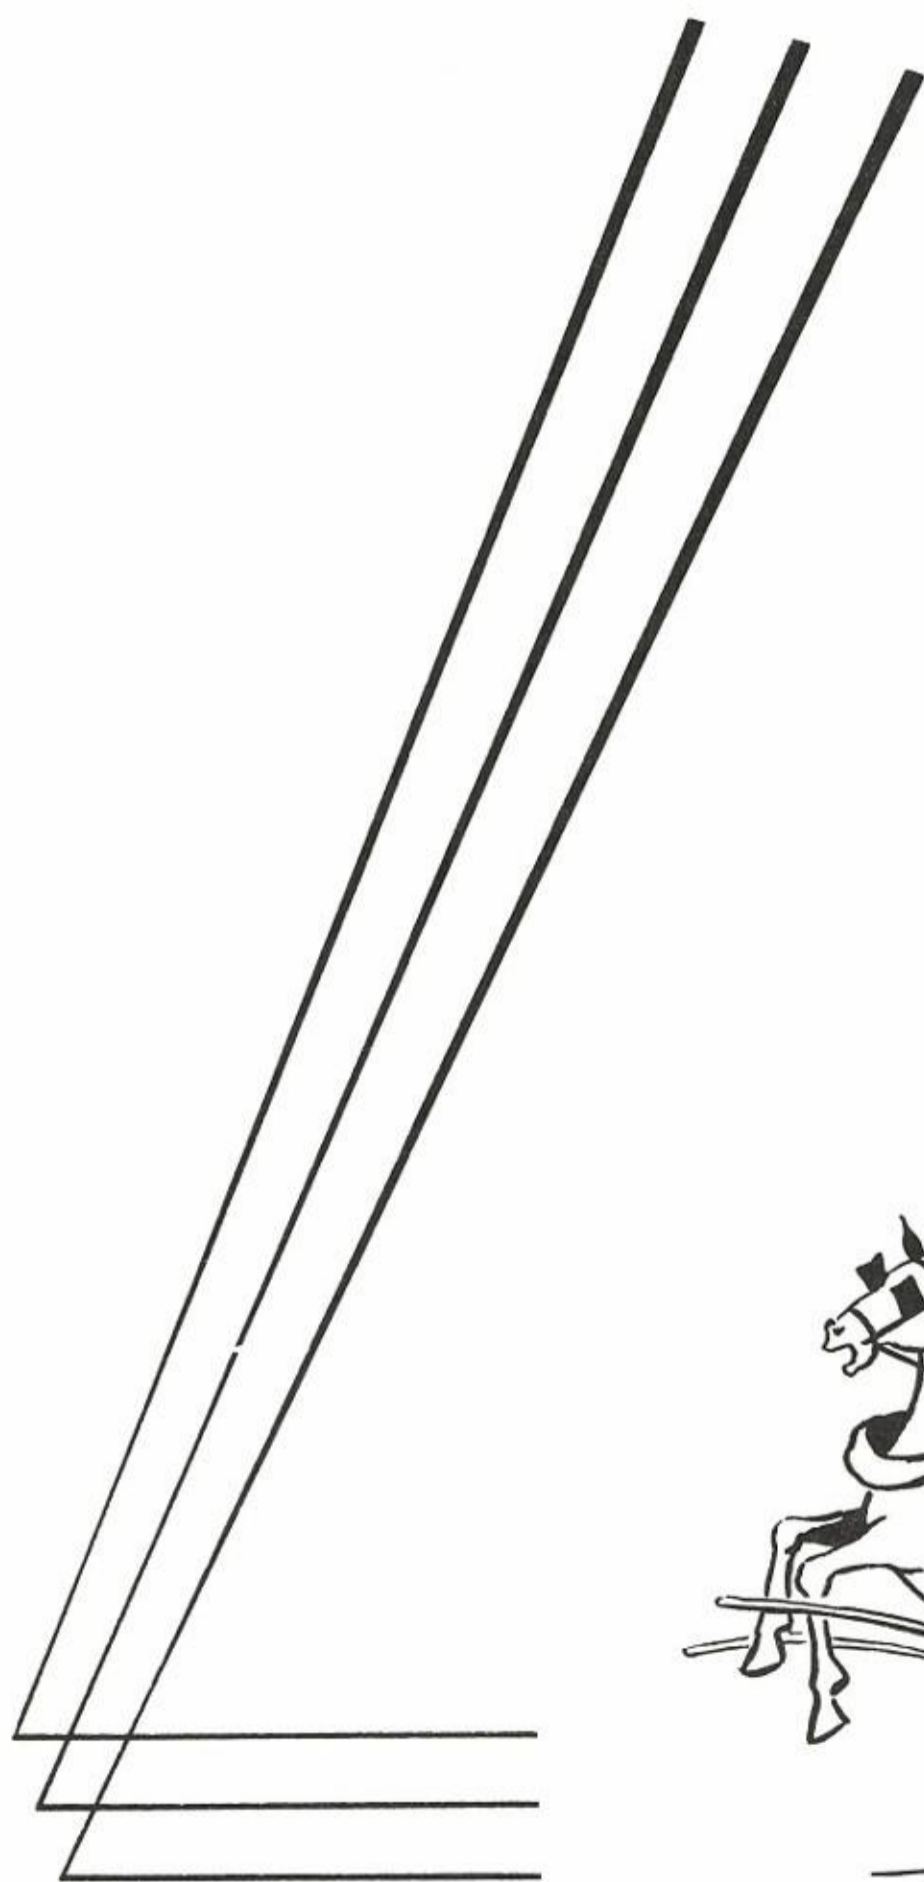

Madame Velma Lee Clegg, world's foremost designer of cats' clothing, announces that she will enter the field of designing for men and women's space suits next fall. She predicts that her styles will set the pace for the world.

A motorless automobile has been invented. Patent no. PAT has been issued to Eddy Collins. This brilliant scientist states that the plans for this invention were drawn while he was a student at H. H. S.

Word has been received here that Shirley Potthoff, famed Metropolitan opera star who formerly lived here, will give a broadcast tonight over the station I-K-E. She will sing "I Attico Aparenchi Tutte Enormi?" (Who threw the overalls in Mistress Murphy's Chowder).

The Football round-up for 1954. Out of the seven games that we played we won one. The other six games were well played although the boys were out-weighted by most teams. The Senior Football boys are happy to say that the team this year has improved greatly since their Freshman year.

The captain of the team for this season was Eddy Collins. Other lettermen for the season are: Lianold Kinnett, Larry Collins, Rex Tracy, Bob Brunswig, Bob Collins, Dick Bannister, John Schwartz, John Corder, Phil Dexter, David Sims, and Butch Van Horn.
